THE PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT, NO. 2 of 2000

by

HUMBLE SOFTWARE PROPRIETARY LIMITED

(Registration Number 2012/114432/07)

Published 29-09-2021

1 GROUP OF COMPANIES

- 1.1 Humble Software Proprietary Limited, registration number 2012/114432/07 ("Company") is a private body as defined in the Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 ("Act").
- 1.2 This manual is compiled in relation to the Company and its subsidiaries, being –
 - 1.2.1 Adumo RF Proprietary Limited, registration number 2017/540380/07;

2 ACCESS TO INFORMATION

- 2.1 The motivation for the Act is found in the Constitution of South Africa which provides that everyone has a right of access to information held –
 - 2.1.1 by the state, where no reason for access to the information needs to be established (section 32(1)(a)); or
 - 2.1.2 by a private body, if the requestor requires a record for the exercise or protection of any right (section 32(1)(b)).
- 2.2 The Constitution further requires that legislation be enacted to give effect to the provision of section 32 of the Constitution. The Act has been enacted to meet this requirement.
- 2.3 In terms of the Act any person has a right of access to a record held by or under the control of a private body if (a) the record is required for the exercise or protection of any right, (b) the requestor has complied with all the procedural requirements of the Act, and (c) no grounds for refusal can be established by the private body allowing them to refuse access to the record requested.
- 2.4 The grounds for refusal established in the Act are –
 - 2.4.1 mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person (human being);
 - 2.4.2 mandatory protection of commercial information of a third party;
 - 2.4.3 mandatory protection of certain confidential information of a third party;
 - 2.4.4 mandatory protection of the safety of individuals, and the protection of property;
 - 2.4.5 mandatory protection of records privileged from production in legal proceedings;
 - 2.4.6 commercial information of a private body;
 - 2.4.7 mandatory protection of research information of a third party and of a private body.
- 2.5 The first step in assessing a request is to determine if the request is procedurally correct. This is facilitated by the requester ("Requestor") properly and fully completing the information required in the request. If assistance is required, the information officer ("IO") will render reasonable assistance to a Requester to comply with the procedures set out in the Act. The IO will also require that the Requester is properly identified and that the applicable fee and, if applicable a deposit, has been paid. Once these requirements have all been fully satisfied a 30 day period begins to run and the IO is obliged to give the Requester notice of the IO's decision during that 30 day period.
- 2.6 The second step in assessing a request is to determine if the Requester has evidenced, in the request, that the Requestor requires the record to exercise or protect a right. If the IO is satisfied that the information provided by the Requester supports this requirement, the third step will be conducted.
- 2.7 The third step in assessing a request is to determine if the IO must or may refuse the request on the basis of a ground for refusal. In some cases this decision is mandatory, and in others it is discretionary.
- 2.8 Once the IO has made a decision the IO must inform the Requester of the decision and, if the request is refused, provide reasons for the refusal.
- 2.9 If the Requester is aggrieved by either the fees charged for access to a record, the form in which access is provided to a record, or by a refusal to grant access to a record, the Requester is entitled to apply to court for appropriate relief, within 30 days of receiving notice of the decision.
- 2.10 The Company endorses the object of the Act, which is to give effect to the constitutional right of access to information, subject to justifiable limitations. The manual is intended to assist a Requester in exercising this right.
